Materials Needed:

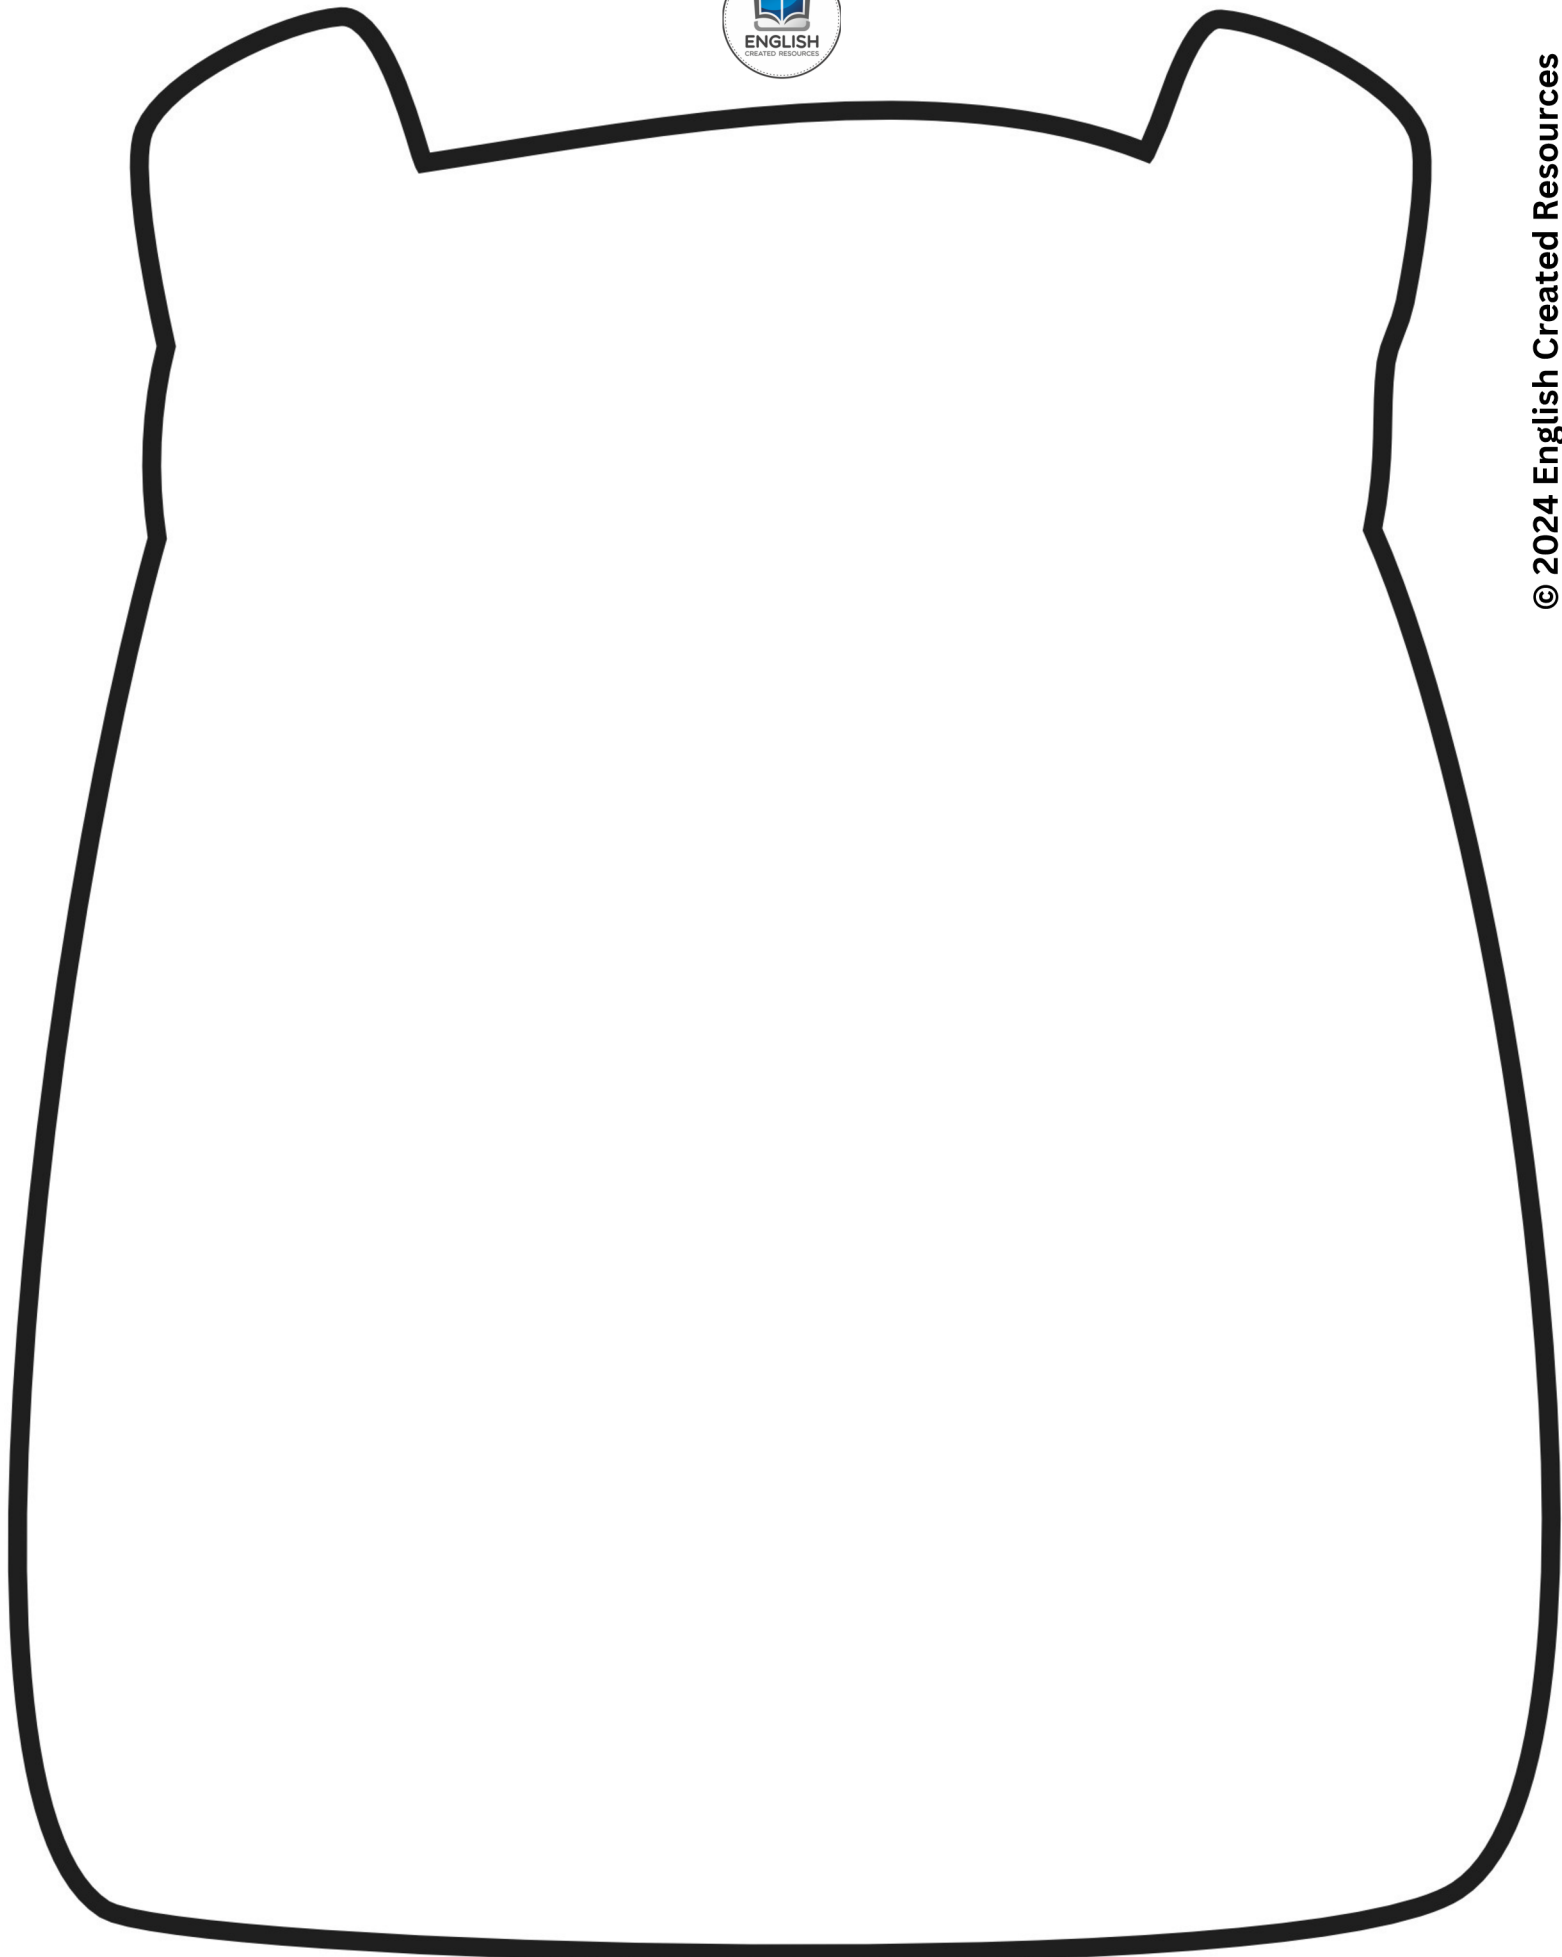

- Backpack template
- Colored pencils, markers, or crayons
- Glue stick or white glue
- Colored cardstock or construction paper
- Small square paper tiles in various colors
- Scissors

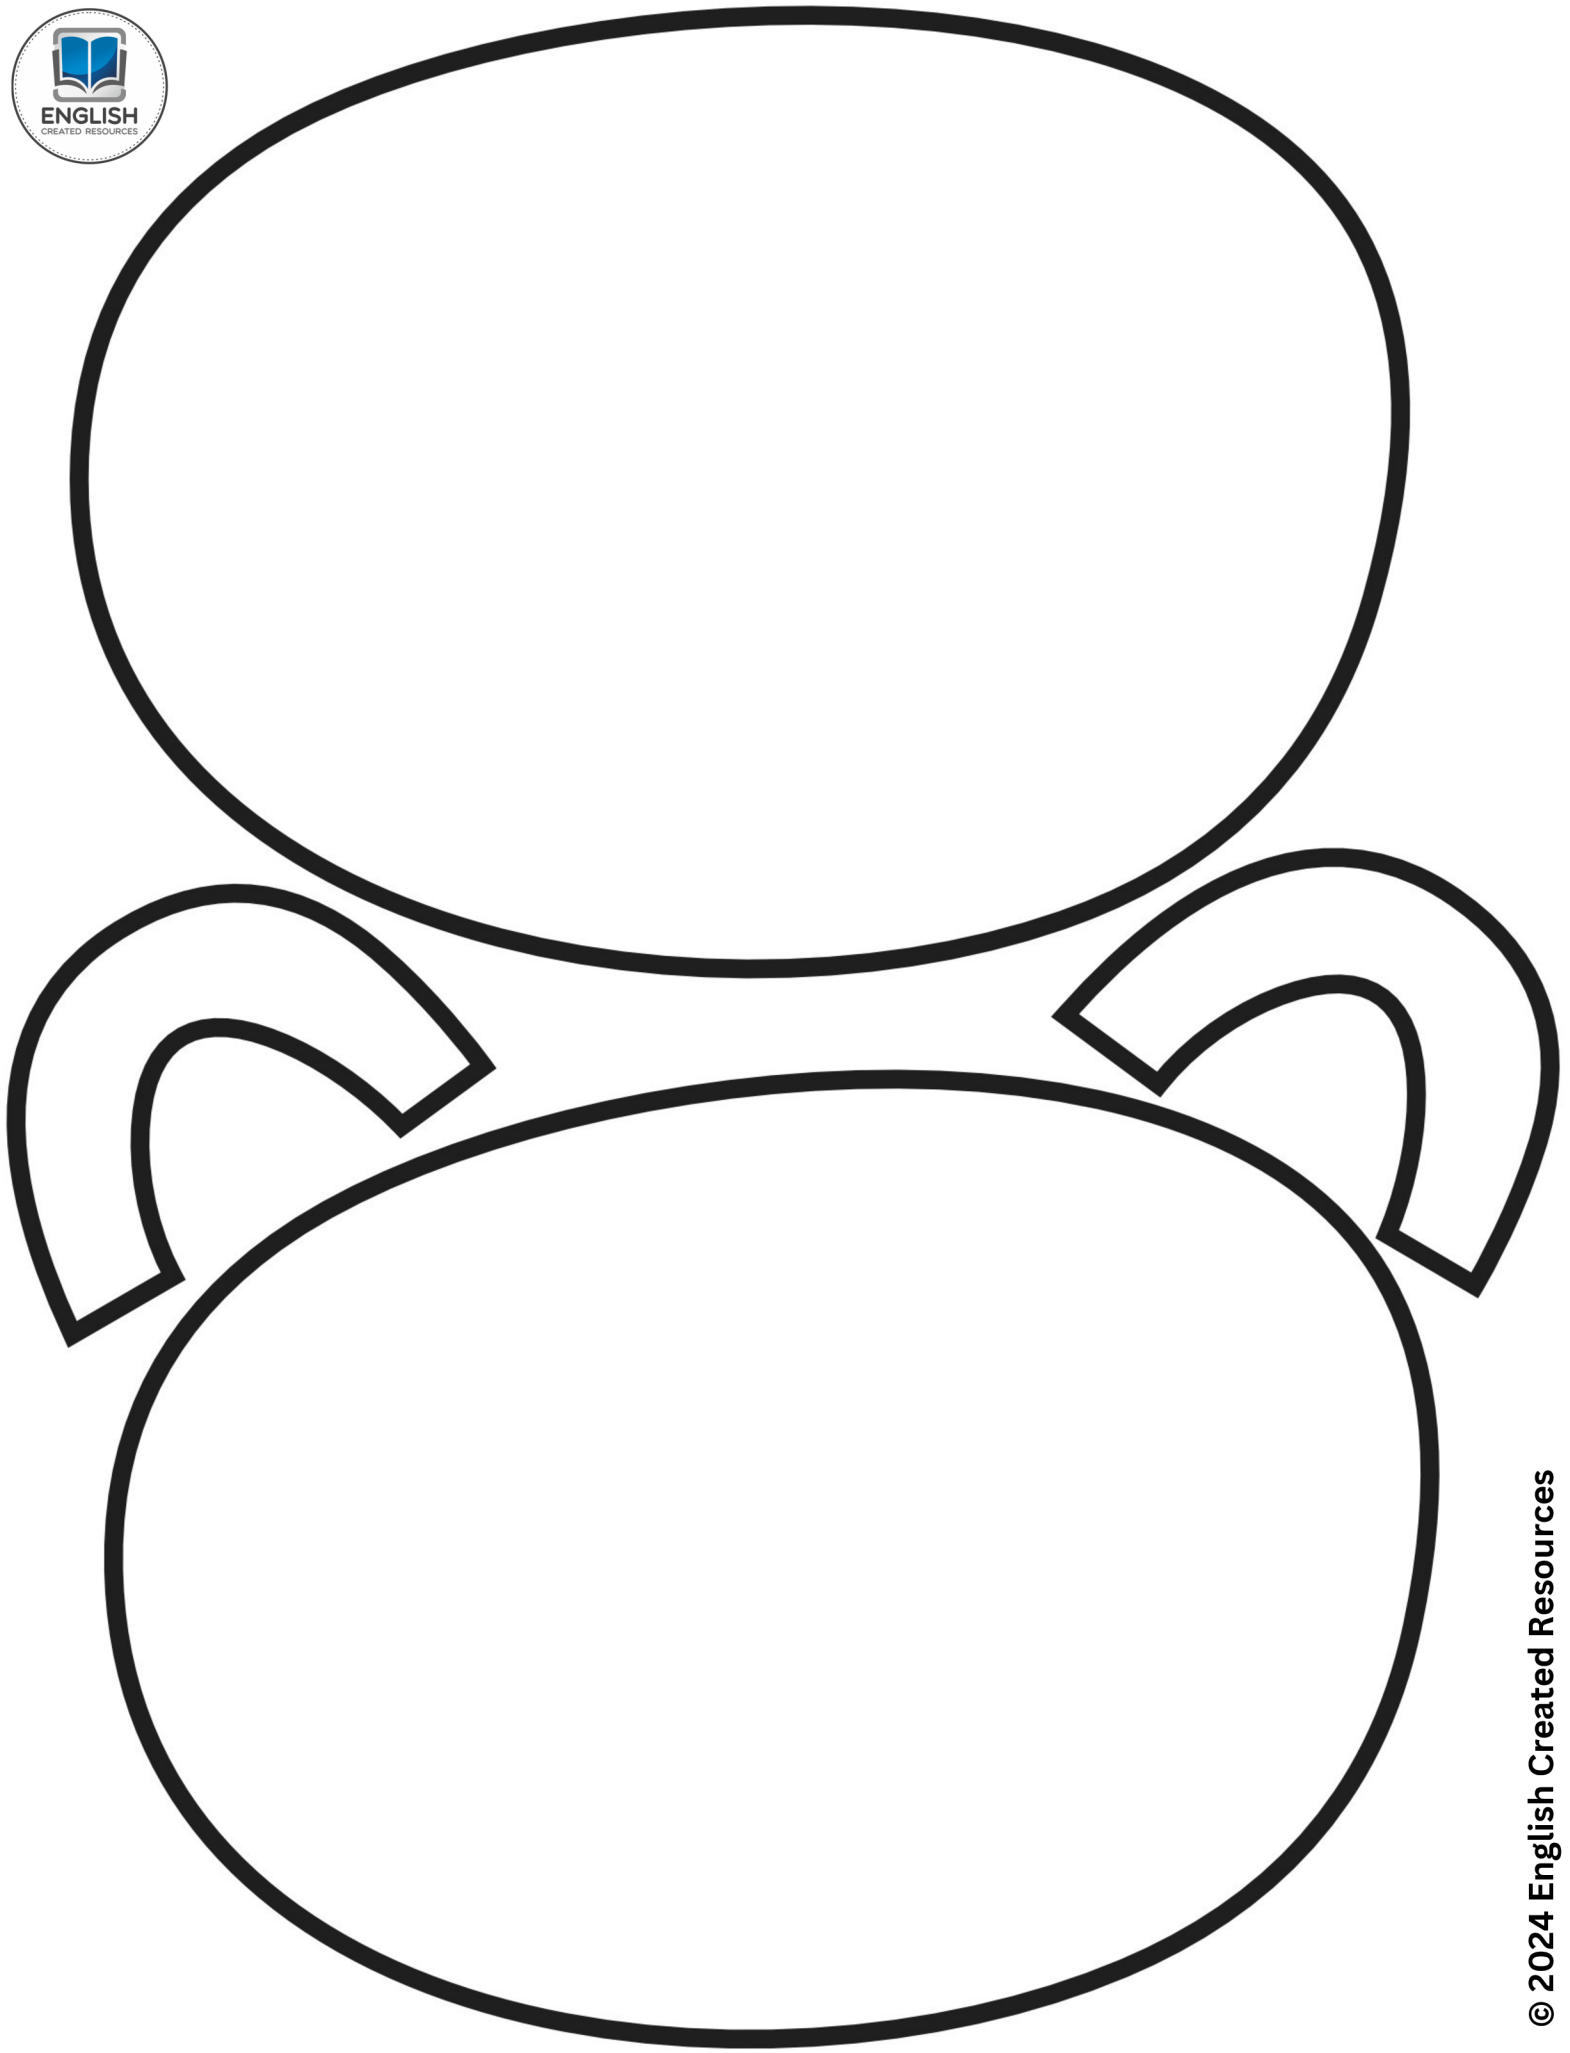

Instructions:

- Color and Assemble: Provide students with the backpack template. They can use colored pencils, markers, or crayons to add vibrant colors to each part of the backpack. After coloring, help them assemble the backpack using glue. This step enhances their hand-eye coordination and attention to detail.
- Personalize with Name: Give children the colored cardstock or construction paper to create their name's initials or the entire name, depending on their age and ability. Cutting and arranging the letters of their name encourages creativity and cognitive development.
- Write Their Name: Provide students with pencils to write their names. Markers or crayons can also be used but remind them to write slowly to avoid mistakes. This step allows them to practice their handwriting skills.
- Finishing Touches: Once the name is complete, encourage students to add any additional decorations or embellishments to their backpack to make it truly unique.
- Display and Share: Display the completed backpack name crafts proudly in the classroom or at home, creating a colorful and personalized gallery.

Print on color paper or cardboard. You can also use this as a coloring activity by printing on white paper or cardboard.
